Plan Description

This Modern Farmhouse ranch mixes textures including board and batten siding, white brick, and metal roofing. Inside, immediate impressions are made by a soaring wood-beamed cathedral ceiling in the great room. The great room is warmed by a beautiful fireplace. Just off the great room, you will find an amazing library with exposed wood beams. The kitchen, with an expansive work island and a walk-in pantry, is open to the dining area that includes wood beams. Away from the living areas, the main floor's master suite features a large walk-in closet with a built-in bench, and his and her vanities in the bath. On the other side of the home, bedrooms 2 and 3 share a Jack-n-Jill bath and each has its own walk-in closet. The generously proportioned 3-car garage includes ample space. It accesses the home through a mudroom, complete with bench, lockers and a coat closet.
